JOB DESCRIPTION FOR EXAM INVIGILATOR

Responsible to: Exams Officer

The invigilator is the person in the examination room responsible for conducting a particular examination session in the presence of the candidates. Invigilators have a key role in upholding the integrity of the internal and external examination process.

OVERALL PURPOSE OF THE POST

The role of the invigilator is to ensure that the examination is conducted according to JCQ instructions in order to:

- ensure all candidates have an equal opportunity to demonstrate their abilities;
- ensure the security of the examination before, during and after the examination;
- prevent possible candidate malpractice;
- prevent possible administrative failures.

Training will be provided.

MAIN DUTIES

Before exams

- To report to the Exams Officer prior to each exam session.
- To keep exam papers and materials secure at all times.
- To ensure exam rooms are set out to standard.
- To admit candidates into exam rooms.
- To identify, seat, and instruct candidates in the conduct of their exams.
- To distribute exam papers and materials to candidates.
- To deal with candidate queries.

During exams

- To supervise candidates at all times and be vigilant throughout exams.
- To keep disruption to a minimum.
- To deal with emergencies or irregularities effectively.
- To record/report any irregularities.
- To complete attendance registers.
- To deal with candidate queries.

ALL HALLOWS CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

After exams

- To collect exam scripts.
- To dismiss candidates from the exam room.
- To return exam scripts and other materials to the Exams Officer.
- To attend training, refresher or review sessions as required.

OTHER DUTIES

- To undertake, where required and where able, other duties requested by the Exams Officer, for example:
 - Supervision of clash candidates between exam periods
 - Providing support for candidates with access arrangements e.g. as a reader, scribe
 - Exams-related administrative tasks.

This is a casual position and, if successful in being appointed as an Invigilator, does not form a contract of employment with the school.

The school has no obligation to offer hours and our invigilators have no obligation to accept work. The school reserves the right to amend the duties of an invigilator and the above is a guide for recruitment purposes.

Full training will be provided on appointment. This job description is subject to amendment, from time to time, within the terms of your conditions of employment, but only to the extent consistent with the needs of the school, and only after consultation with you.

All staff and senior post holders have a duty for safeguarding and promoting the welfare of young people. Staff must be aware of the school procedures for raising concerns about students' welfare and must report any concern to the designated officers without delay.

Staff must also ensure that they attend the appropriate level of safeguarding training identified by the school as relevant to their role. The post holder's duties must at all times be carried out in compliance with the school's Equality and Diversity Policy, and the post holder must take reasonable care of the health and safety of self, other persons and resources whilst at work. This entails supporting the school's responsibilities under the Health and Safety Act.

All staff are expected to support the achievement of the school's mission and strategic objectives and to demonstrate its values through their conduct.
